

Medical Oncologist

About the Position:

Our medical oncologists provide care as members of teams, which include nurses, pharmacists, radiation therapists, oncologists, surgeons, social workers, volunteers and palliative care staff.

Participation in clinical trials in collaboration with cooperative groups and the health care sector is a major focus of activity for our oncologists.

They are members of cooperative clinical trial groups as Alliance, NCIC CTG, and NRG. Our oncologists are eligible for a clinical appointment in the Division of Oncology, College of Medicine at the University of Saskatchewan and are also involved in teaching medical students and residents at the undergraduate and graduate level.

Job Requirements:

Education

- Degree in Medicine with subspecialty training in internal medicine and medical oncology

Experience

- Experience with a variety of tumour sites is considered an asset

Credentials

- Must be eligible for licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Saskatchewan
- Must be eligible for membership and privileges with the Saskatchewan Health Authority

Other

- Eligible for Canadian Medical Protective Association (CMPA) coverage or equivalent
- Written and verbal fluency in English

About Us

The Saskatchewan Cancer Agency is a provincial healthcare organization dedicated to providing cancer care for the people of Saskatchewan. Our compassionate and knowledgeable team provides leadership in health promotion, early detection, treatment and research for cancer.

We run two cancer centres, the Allan Blair Cancer Centre in Regina, and the Saskatoon Cancer Centre. We also provide services in rural communities in partnership with hospitals through the Community Oncology Program.

Our vision is a healthy population free from cancer, and our more than 900 dedicated employees work hard every day towards this vision.

For the past 90 years, our teams have been leading revolutionary technologies that help make our treatments as effective as possible to help our patients live longer, fuller lives.

In 2022, the Cancer Agency received an Exemplary Standing for safety and quality from Accreditation Canada, the highest achievement a health care organization can receive.

Note: All positions at the Saskatchewan Cancer Agency require a criminal record check.